

GERRY'S view

FOOD NEWS FROM AROUND THE STATES

Terrance Brennan, one of America's most revered chefs, is the chef-owner of the three-star New York Times, two-star Guide Michelin Picholine, located on Manhattan's West Side near Lincoln Center. Brennan also owns Artisanal Bistro & Fromagerie and is the Director of the Artisanal Premium Cheese Center, also in Manhattan. Brennan has been to Spain several times, including a multi-region gastronomic tour in 2005 with this author. He incorporates many Spanish ingredients into his French- and Mediterranean-influenced cuisine and serves an exceptional modern-cuisine tapas menu in the bar area at Picholine.

